Re : Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc., et al. (08-13555 (JMP) )

Dear Miss. Eckols,

I've noted your insistence, but I have a opinion as follows;

I've sent the letter of my request to Mr. J.M.Peck of United States

Bankruptcy Court Southern District of New York on May 19, 2011 before the Hearing of June 28, 2011, which I'd been present by myself.

The contents of that letter are as follows;

My claims remain as follows:

I had received your letters of NOTICE of DEADLINES FOR FILING

PROOFS OF CLAIM on October 5, 2009 enclosed Schedule A list (copy) detailing only 20 companies.

So I had entered in 20 cases of their companies in relation to LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDINGS INC..

However afterwards I've received a letter dated March 31 2011 of Schedule of Debtors (copy), and handed over you there at that hearing date, detailing 23 companies.

Three companies from the bottom of the list as follows:

Merit LLC

LB Preferred Somerset LLC

LB Somerset LLC

I didn't enter in the cases of those three companies as a claim.

So I want to entry in the cases as a claim against each three companies.

Basis for claim: the rest, which almost everything's settled clearly.

The documents are not available, there aren't the proofs because the parent companies had founded them.

Another I want make the following companies claim as to me, which companies's cases still remain as a claim for me.-19 companies without Lehman Brothers Special Financing Inc. (claim no. 46347)

The reason ①: I've received the proposal of purchase of those companies(claims).

So I must watch the all settlement to the end.

② I couldn't take action in spite of disagree with these objections.

Because your 20 letters of the NOTICE of taking action were all written by small letter in dot points.

The name of the claim party: myself

Awaiting for your kind attention.

Sincerely yours,

(signature) K. Norimatsu
